

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1820 - SB 1928

April 18, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Extends the provisions of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles to a juvenile who has been accused of delinquency in Tennessee by reason of a violation of criminal law but who has not been adjudicated as a delinquent and has left this state. This additional provision puts in place a mechanism for such a juvenile to be returned to this state for adjudication and disposition.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes that the number of juveniles returned to this state to be adjudicated for criminal offense will not significantly exceed the number of juveniles transfer to other states under the provisions of this compact.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" and last name "Davenport" clearly legible.
